

Questions

How many of us should be there.

Is it better to do some in person, some video?

Is there some way we can try to engage him before the actual event

How do we decide what treatment is best for him

If there are sibling issues, would that be part of therapy

How much does it cost

Should we do it at his house or our parents'?